

We need to raise €100,000 to renovate The Warehouse Studio

After owning these much-loved Warehouse Studio Theatre facilities for 30 years, they have become home to international amateur theatre communities throughout Brussels.

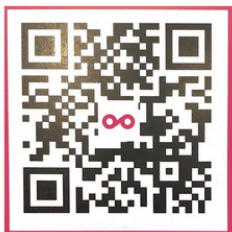

As for any home, it needs maintenance and the time has come for essential upgrades. After two years of pandemic which halted new productions, our savings have been chipped away. We appeal to you, our audience of theatre enthusiasts, to help fund these investments.

Help us maintain a vibrant anglophone theatre tradition in Brussels
